Biography

Solesse “Sunny” Altman represents plaintiffs and defendants in high-stakes trial and appellate litigation. Her experience encompasses a wide range of matters, including class actions, antitrust matters, breaches of contract, business divorces, and product liability cases. Her practice also focuses on intellectual property, where she handles copyright, trade secrets, and trademark matters.

Sunny is active in the legal community, serving on the board of directors for Georgia Lawyers for the Arts (GLA), a nonprofit that provides legal assistance and educational programming to artists and arts organizations across the state. She is a graduate of the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity’s Pathfinders program and the Anti-Defamation League’s Glass Leadership Institute, and a former barrister for the Clarke-Carley Inn of Court.

Before joining the firm, she clerked for the Honorable Richard W. Story in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Georgia.

Outside the office, Sunny serves as the media relations chair for the Thomasville Rose Society, where she volunteers annually for the Thomasville Rose Show and Festival and was named the Thomasville Rose Society Member Annual Honoree for 2023. She also serves on the alumni council for the Auburn University chapter of Pi Beta Phi Fraternity for Women.
