Biography

Tanya is a litigation specialist with over 30 years of experience in paralegal and case management at Bondurant and has previously been recognized as Paralegal of the Year by the Daily Report.

She has provided litigation support for some of the largest and most complex litigation cases in Georgia, offering valuable expertise in all areas of case management. Tanya has managed more than 20 trials (both bench and jury) with an emphasis on document-intensive matters. She has handled numerous high-profile matters in state, federal, and appellate courts, including class actions, federal and state prosecutions, and many well-known pro bono matters, as well as national and international mediations and arbitrations.

Tanya received her Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Georgia and her paralegal certificate from the National Center for Paralegal Training, with a specialization in general litigation.

She has frequently served as a featured presenter at seminars on case management, the effective use of paralegals, electronic discovery, and trial preparation. She serves as a resource to in-house paralegals and assists with the training of Bondurant's new paralegals and associates.
